

PROJECT „ZŁOTA KLAMRA”

The event is an annual meeting which has been taking place since 2004.

The main partner of the project is

Samaritan Association of John Paul II in Zakliczyn

Intergenerational integration (seniors - people of working age - children and adolescents)

Objective of the project

Objective
shall be achieved
through joint action

singing

dance

games and activities

being together!

Creating a positive image of elderly people in society.

This is achieved by showing that elderly people can be active, and that they have a vast knowledge, skills and experiences to society.

What is more, to show the existing bond between the different generations.

Fot. St. Kusiak

Fot. St. Kusiak

Involving elderly people in Malopolska as well as other inhabitants of this county by taking part in competition which subject is old age.

Engaging a group of seniors in Malopolska by involvement in preparation, organization and taking part in the event itself.

The essential activity included in Zlota Klamra is:

To prevent social exclusion of elderly
people
by organizing their spare time in a way that they can take part in local events and creating a positive image of elderly
people

During each event the organizers announce the winners and hand in a diplomas, trophy/medals and books as rewards.

Literature

Poetic

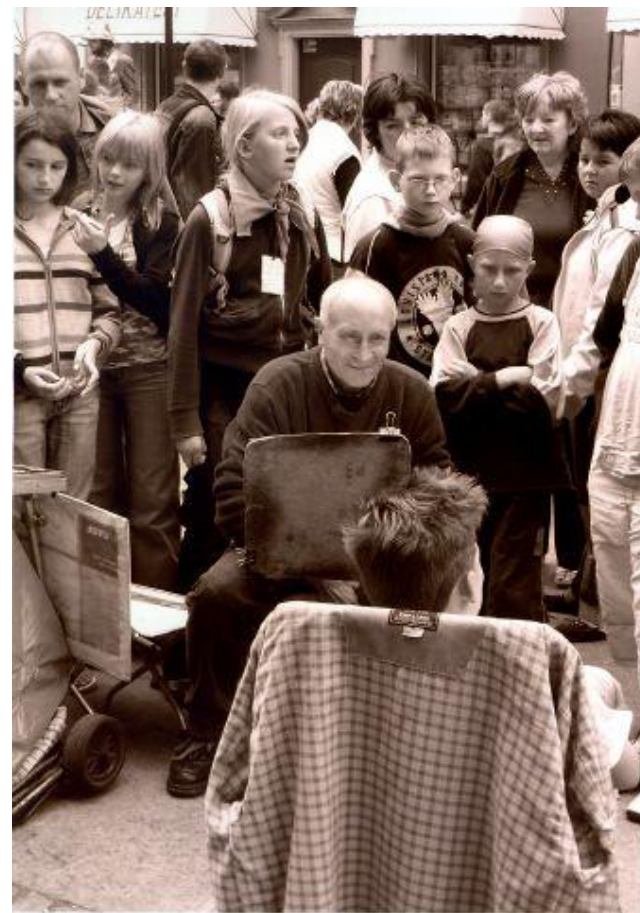

Art

Photographic

Passion for elderly

The crucial role in the project perform volunteers.
They are involved in all the preparations and organization of the project Złota Klamra.

teenagers

children

adults

The employees of Home for Elderly
People in Zakliczyn are involved in organizing the event also as volunteers.

Their task is not only to prepare the seniors as well as decorations, medical service and snacks for guests but also to participate actively and work during the event.

Teenagers are involved in the project from the very beginning. Starting from advertising the event, preparing the invitations and posters.

They help in setting up decorations, clothes, costumes for artists and hosts..

Children and teenagers have assigned tasks for which they are responsible.

All the people involved in preparations
for Złota Klamra are volunteers.