

#BXL

Invitation

Qualified Volunteering - Skills for resilient societies

14.11.23 - 18.30h - Representation of the European Region Tyrol – South Tyrol – Trentino in Brussels - Rue de Pascale 47 - B-1040 Brussels

Skill development beyond labour market qualifications needs stronger recognition. Samaritan International organises “Qualified Volunteering - Skills for resilient societies“ in the framework of the European Year of Skills 2023 to highlight the importance of organised volunteering for social skills and social resilience. Volunteers are indispensable across all of SAM.I.'s fields of activity in social services, civil protection and first aid training. We invite you to join the experts in discussing the value of organised volunteering for building socially resilient societies, as well as the supporting framework needed.

Welcome 19h

- Vesna Caminades, Head of the Liaison Office Brussels of the Autonomous Province of Bozen/Bolzano -South Tyrol
- Ivo Bonamico, Secretary-General Samaritan International

Panel discussion and Q&A

Moderation: Knut Fleckenstein, President Samaritan International

- Katarina Barley, Vice-President European Parliament, President ASB
- Gabriella Civico, Director Centre for European Volunteering
- Christoph Nerlich, Member of Cabinet, Commissioner Schmit
- Renata Penazzi, Vice-President Samaritan International

Followed by a networking dinner

Please register
by 14 October

